

SUNDAY NOVEMBER 6

Poetry~ and a Potluck

2 pm

Members of the Tower Poetry Society and the McMaster Poetry and Writing Society will be leading an afternoon of poetry to be shared by all. Everyone is invited to read works of their own or the classics as well as take part in the potluck for an afternoon to inspire us all.

*Last day to vote for your favourite student artist in our Emerging Artist Competition!
Winner announced
at 4pm.*

SATURDAY OCT 29 - WEDNESDAY NOV 9

KING STREET ARTWALK

Presented by The Tower Poetry Society
in conjunction with
The Dundas BIA Shops and the Carnegie Gallery.

Take a stroll down both sides of King
Street between Cross and Sydenham for a unique opportunity to read poetry and see the art works that inspired the poets~ right in the shop windows!

WEDNESDAY NOVEMBER 2

A pre- Arts Dundas Event

Bryan Prince Bookseller

Presents

at the Carnegie:

7pm:

Jonarno Lawson

Marina Endicott

Ray Robertson

Free Admission RSVP
905 528 4508 / 905 628 0485

Carnegie GALLERY

10 King St. W. Dundas, ON L9H 1T7
carnegie@carnegiegallery.org 905-627-4265

ARTS DUNDAS WEEKEND
2011

November 3 - 6

COME CELEBRATE

THE ARTS WITH THE CARNEGIE GALLERY

Carnegie GALLERY

10 King St. W. Dundas, ON L9H 1T7
carnegie@carnegiegallery.org 905-627-4265

THURSDAY NOVEMBER 3

Art Talk: Chagall and the Russian Avant-Garde

7 pm

Join us for this delightful and insightful evening, presented by

Phyllis Tresidder

about the master artist Chagall.

As a lead up to the Carnegie bus trip* to the AGO Chagall and the Russian Avant-Garde Masterpieces from the Collection of the Centre Pompidou, Paris exhibition, this talk will provide background and insight into these masterpieces.

*See the Carnegie website for details on the bus trip: Nov. 22nd.

EMERGING ARTIST COMPETITION

The Carnegie Gallery is hosting an emerging artist display and competition over the course of Arts Dundas Weekend. Come in to vote for your favourite piece and give a student a chance to have a show at the Gallery!

If you are a student studying art at a post secondary level you are eligible to submit one piece to be juried by the Dundas Community and visitors from

Nov. 3 - 6.

Please see our website for submission details.

FRIDAY NOVEMBER 4

SMALL WORKS

Opening Reception 7- 9:30pm

A jumpstart on Christmas!

Special emphasis this year on

Children and TOYS,

for young and old alike.

Watch for our Carnegie artist members, frequent Christmas Guests and New ones too!

Monika Shedden (dolls, stockings, children's fairy houses),
Emily Shedden (tiny fairies),
Barb Sachs (wonderful Raku animals, real and fanciful), Andrea Flockhart (Children's toys), Jonathon Harper (pottery animal whistles), Roger Wood (wild clocks),
Margaret Burns (children's toys),
Ancilla Miller (purses), Judy Spencer and Sue Mangaw (felted hats and bags), Mary Philpott (Ceramics- florals and animal motifs), Lindsay Grahavoc (miniatures and sculptured ornaments), Katherine Matwiyiw (ornaments), Pavlo Pottery (ornaments) and many more of our guests and regular artist membership.

SATURDAY NOV 5

Film Screening:

In collaboration with

The Dundas Public Library

3pm at the Carnegie

"Identity"

An episode of the acclaimed Art 21 series.

How does contemporary art address the idea of identity?

This documentary explores questions of stereotypes, portraiture and what it means to be an artist. Looking at the work of William Wegman, Kerry James Marshall, Maya Lin, Bruce Nauman and the late Louise Bourgeois to assess the role contemporary art plays within society.

Followed by an open discussion.

This event is produced in collaboration with Art21, Inc., a non-profit contemporary art organization serving artists, students, teachers, and the general public worldwide.

Remember to vote for your favourite student artist!