

Carnegie Gallery Excursions presents . . .

Impressionism in the Age of Industry

at the
Art Gallery of Ontario

Saturday, March 02, 2019

9:30 – 5:00

Members $67.50

Non-members - $75.00

Registration for Members Only begins on Wednesday, January 23 at 10:00 am and continues until Friday, January 25 at noon.

Registration for Non-Members begins on Friday, January 25 at noon.

Space is limited, so book early!

Register in person or by phone at the Carnegie Gallery

10 King St. W. Dundas, ON L9H 1T7
carnegie@carnegiegallery.org 905-627-4265

EXHIBITION OVERVIEW

Some of the greatest artists of all time responded with passion as their beloved Paris was transformed by the industrial revolution.

Impressionism in the Age of Industry brings together masterpieces from around the world to the AGO, including over 100 great paintings, Sculptures, drawings, prints, photographs and films from the period.

Bringing these works together offers a new perspective on Impressionism which is more associated with leisure activities and sunny landscapes.

ITINERARY

1. Bus will be boarding at University Plaza Dundas at the Beverly Tire end of the Plaza. There will be plenty of free parking in that area of the plaza.
2. Bus is scheduled to arrive at 9:15 am for boarding and will depart promptly at 9:30 am. Please arrive on time for boarding.
3. ITINERARY for the AGO – IMPRESSIONISM in the Age of Industry excursion is as follows:

9:30 am	LV Dundas
10:30 am	AR Art Gallery of Ontario, Toronto
11:00 am	Tour IMPRESSIONISM in the Age of Industry
12:30 noon	Lunch on your own
1:30 pm	Visit AGO Permanent Collection, Other Exhibitions, Gallery Shop
3:15 pm	Board Bus for return to Dundas
3:30 pm	LV AGO, Toronto
5:00 pm	AR Dundas